

The Personal Giveaway Link (PGL)

The Personal Giveaway Link (or PGL) is a proprietary promotional system developed by Mass Luminosity, exclusively for participants of the primary Gaming Tribe global giveaways.

Here's how it works: When a giveaway participant uses your PGL to enter the giveaway, our system instantly associates that entry with yours, and if that participant wins the giveaway's Grand Prize you will receive the Grand Prize too!

This is a unique promotional system developed by Mass Luminosity to encourage sharing of the giveaway, while also slightly increasing the odds of winning the Grand Prize. The process does not work in reverse, so if you win a Grand Prize, participants who entered using your PGL do not receive any prizes.

The original PGL is sent to all giveaway participants via an email confirmation when entering the giveaway, but can also be obtained using these simple steps:

- 1) Login at www.gamingtribe.com
- 2) Go to your Profile Page at www.gamingtribe.com/profile/
- 3) Under your profile image you will find the following statement: "...entered the [NAME] giveaway." [NAME] being the name of the giveaway.
- 4) RIGHT-click the name of the giveaway and select COPY LINK from the resulting web browser drop down menu. Example:

...entered the Maximum Fury giveaway
...1 member used his PGL to enter the giveaway

Now you can paste the copied link on text messages, emails, Snapchats, Twitter posts/messages, IM messages, blogs, forums, websites, Facebook posts/messages, Steam groups, Tumblr, Twitch, Pinterest, Google Plus+ and others.

Once someone enters the giveaway using your PGL, you will see a number by "...[X] member(s) used his PGL to enter the giveaway" on your Profile Page. Clicking the number will display a list of every person who used your PGL to enter the giveaway.

IMPORTANT: Do not post or use your PGL link on Gaming Tribe as the engine converts it back to a regular link, and you will not get credit for entries.
